CRACK CAMPAIGNERS TO MEET AT LAUREL

The Finn Will Run in Handicaps During the Meeting at Maryland Course.

The Finn, H. A. Hallenback's sterling black son of Ogden-Livonia, the winner of the Chesterbrook and Havre de Grace Handicaps, is among those named in the big handicaps to the run during the an-nual meeting of the Maryland State Fair, which will be inaugurated at Laurel Park next Monday afternoon to run a period of twenty-six racing days. In the Baiti-more, Washington and Grand Nationa Handicaps The Finn is to meet practi-cally the same field of high-class thoroughbreds that he took into camp in the hig races decided in Harford County within the past ten days. The Grand National is the richest event at Laurel, being $2,500 added, while the Baltimore and Washington events are of $2,000 added The veteran Ed Heffner, who trains The Finn, was among yesterday's visitors at Laurel Park and he has arranged to ship the mighty son of Ogden to the southern Maryland track this week. While Heffner is not a talkative person, he is not-urally delighted with the form The Finn displayed in landing the Chesterbrook and the Havre de Grace Handicaps, and he doesn't believe there is a 4-year-old in America who can outrace him on any sort of a track, although The Finn has always been partial to soft going. The Finn is no newcomer to the patrons of the racing at Laurel Park, as he won two handicaps from smart fields during the meeting held there last fall. In the Baltimore, Washington and Grand Na-tional, at Laurel, The Finn will meet such notables as Andrew Miller's Roamer, August Belmont's Stromboli, Harry Payne Whitney's Borrow, James Butler's

Spur, and J. W. May's Bayberry Candle.
Roamer was second and Stromboli third to The Finn in the Chesterbrook, at Havra de Grace, while Spur was second and Borrow third to the Hallenback crack in Saturday's big race at the Harford County track. But for poor racing luck many are of the opinion that Spur would have beaten The Finn Saturday, and when these two thoroughbreds are booked to meet at Laurel it will be an event of great interest to the followers of the turf. Bayberry Candle, though unplaced in both the Chesterbrook and event of great interest to the followers of the turf. Bayberry Candle, though unplaced in both the Chesterbrook and the Havre de Grace Handicap, is a high-class distance performer and has the distinction of having beaten George Smith, at Louisville, in a race which was run their nominations for governor and Unitarian Sensitive Sensiti at Louisville, in a race which was run prior to George Smith's victory in the rich Kentucky Derby, on the picturesque course of the new Louisville Jockey Club.

Churchill Downs, Stromboil, Borrow, Spur, and Short Grass are the leading dent of the club. Among those present handicap horses of the year, and during were William R. Willox, chairman of the Belmont Park meeting Short Grass, the leading light in the racing establish-freedrick C. Tanner, State chairman; Samuel S. Koenig, county chairman; the Belmont Park meeting Short Grass, the leading light in the racing establishment of Emil Herz, broke the world's Samuel S. Koenig, county chairman; record for a mile over a circular track. Surely with this array of stars of the old division and the cleverest 2-year-olds in training in the juvenile stakes, the sport at Laurel next fronth will be the best since the Southern Maryland course was placed on the racing calendar. Yesterday's ideal weather attracted many visitors to the Laurel track, Quite a number of trainers slipped down from The governor asserted that the Demoa number of trainers slipped down from Havre de Grace to look their quarters over before shipping from Havre de Grace this week. All were delighted with the new stables and the consideration General Manager M. J. Winn has given them. They were loud in their praise of the plant and the track itself, which they

This afternoon, the postman delivered to the studio a small, square, emerald-green box which bore the postmark of Sydney, Australia. It had a faunty air in spite of its marred and hammered-in edges, and flaunted a gaudy red ribbon.

I am like a child—the opening of packages is a wonderful sport.

"Let's guess what is in it:" I turned to the others, holding it above my head for them all to see it.

"An embroidered waist." ventured mother. "Some dear little oid lady has been busy with her needle."

"Stockings," and Lottie's voice rang with the assurance that she could not possibly be wrong.
